SAY!

(By CHARLES J. ARNOLD)

About the only thing I can kick about today is the gasoline tax, which after careful investigation, I have determined is unfair and should be repealed. As a driver of an automobile I have always believed that the tax was fair, but since becoming the proud possessor of a patent cigar lighter, which in no way uses the roads but consumed a world of gas, I am convinced that the gasoline tax is unfair.

Well, here we are right at the threshold of another Putnam County Fair week. And if it rains next week—which it will not—I am in favor of changing the event to an annual aquatic meet. It is "wet" enough in Putnam County all the time and especially during Fair week, without any rain, anyway. By changing it to an "Aquatic" meet, we would be assured of dry weather.

Well, all the folks are home from the State Fair and should have a lot of suggestions for our own event. But the first fellow who mentions dust, is liable to be shot at sunrise.

Ralph Confer, T. H. I. & Eastern train dispatcher, comes through with this one: "Did you hear about the Scotchman who walked 7 miles to a ball park and, unable to find an unoccupied knot hole was too tired to climb the fence?"

Fillmore with its new pavement completed is stepping right along with Greencastle in its street improvement program.

Maybe the big explosion in Mansfield hall was simply in the nature of a celebration in honor of the coming of DePauw's new president.

With the reopening of public schools in Greencastle motorists should realize that safety zones in front of school buildings are for their own protection as well as that of children and be extremely cautious in respecting them. Among the children returning to the school room during September will be many little ones six years of age who for the first time are leaving the protection and safety of their homes to attend school. They deserve the protection of every thoughtful motorist. The car owner should be ever on the alert to watch for signs in the school safety zones and heed the traffic signs. Above all, the motorist should realize that the children of Greencastle are returning to school after several months of freedom on a playground and will not be as careful as later in the year.

SMITH KNOWS HIS FISH

(By Frank Sullivan)

Mr. Hoover makes a great show of knowing about fish, but after all, the only fish he really knows is the trout and a friend of mine who is quite a well known trout in one of the fashionable Adirondack trout streams tells me that Hoover doesn't know as much about trout as he thinks he does.

"We trout are a funny race," said this trout, whose name is Nate; "We are very reserved. Hoover may think he has our confidence but he hasn't really. Personally, give me Al Smith."

"Why?" I asked, not that I wanted to give Al Smith to a trout, but merely out of curiosity.

"Because he doesn't go trout fishing," said Nate sharply. "If you were a trout would you like people who went trout fishing?"

"No indeed."

I saw his point. The colloquy made me realize that Mr. Hoover does not stand in with trout as well as he would have the vast throngs of trout-fishing American voters believe.

Al Smith, on the other hand worked in Fulton Fish Market when a boy and knows all fish thoroughly, including pike, perch, sea bass, weebies, whale, swordfish, grampus, electric eel, refuhtfish and the wierd Norwegian shad, which has a blonde beard, feeds on shreds of smorgsbrod east overboard from Scandinavian sailing vessels and carries its grandfather in a marzipan pouch.

If a national emergency should arise calling for expert handling of fish and how to placate them, Governor Smith would be a better man to have in the White House than Herbert Hoover.

BANK BANDITS GET $10,000 AT RENSSELAER

SCOOP UP CASH AND UNDETERMINED AMOUNT OF NEGOTIABLE BONDS IN DAYLIGHT ROBBERY FRIDAY—ESCAPE IN LARGE CADILLAC

RENSSELAER, Ind., Sept. 7.—Five armed bandits held up the cashier, three women employees and a customer at the State bank at Rensselaer here this afternoon, scooped up $10,000 in currency and an undetermined amount of negotiable bonds and escaped in a large blue Cadillac through the business section of the town without anyone being aware of the robbery until they were far out of town.

Despite the pursuit of an airplane hired for the purpose and Sheriff Harry Rouse, no trace of the bandits had been found late tonight.

The four bandits entered the building at 2:30 o'clock. Three of them forced James H. Chapman, cashier, to lie on the floor of his cage and herded the three women employees, the Misses Elizabeth Hemphill, Catherine Luers and Virginia Kresler and the customer, F. P. Robinson into another cage. The fourth bandit scooped up the money and bonds in a sack and sauntered out into the street near the car in which the fifth bandit was seated.

Two other bandits joined him shortly after and when the fourth came out to the car, they escaped.

The bandits were well dressed and appeared to be about 35 years old, the victims told authorities.

The take-off of the Class B planes today followed postponement of the start of the race during the past two days, because of unfavorable weather conditions. Reports received today from points along the route to be followed by the planes indicated that good flying conditions prevailed.

DEPAUW CLASSES WILL BEGIN ON MONDAY, SEPT. 17

FRESHMEN WEEK TO START NEXT WEDNESDAY AND CONTINUE UNTIL SATURDAY—NEW PRESIDENT TO MEET FACULTY MEMBERS NEXT TUESDAY AFTERNOON

The DePauw University fall term will start with Freshman week Wednesday, September 12, and all freshmen are due on the campus at this time to receive instructions and register before the upperclassmen arrive. Freshmen week is observed at the university in order that the faculty may give their entire time to the freshmen and see that they are properly started on their college course. On Wednesday the time will be given to conferences with the faculty members to which groups will be assigned.

Thursday registration will be held. Friday physical examinations will be held and photographs of the freshmen will be taken.

Friday afternoon all the freshmen students are expected to attend a lecture at Meharry Hall which will be given by Prof. Francis Tilden, on the proper use of the library and its benefit to the students.

Saturday morning will end freshmen week and psychological examinations will be given every student.

Upperclassmen who did not register before the close of school this spring and new students of the sophomore, junior and senior classes who are entering the University for the first time, will register all day Friday and Saturday morning.

Dean William Blanchard is chairman of freshmen week and has compiled an attractive booklet, which will be given to each student giving the complete program for the week. It also contains many other articles relative to college life, athletics and social life.

Judging from the large number of students applying for rooms and from the increased number of Rector scholars, indications are that the freshmen enrollment will be greatly increased over last year's enrollment.

Dr. G. Bromley Oxnam, new president, will preside over the first faculty meeting which will be held late Tuesday afternoon, September 11, at the administration building. All faculty members are required to be back on the campus by then. This will be Dr. Oxnam's first meeting with his college assistants.

College will start properly with classes on Monday, September 17.

HOLD BEASLEY BEHIND BARS AT NEWCASTLE

SEARCH FOR HOMER PATTERSON OF TERRE HAUTE WANTED IN CONNECTION WITH MURDER SHIFTS TO DETROIT

FIND DIAMOND RING OF VICTIM

Henry County Sheriff Takes Elaborate Precautions To Prevent Escape Of Murder Suspect

NEWCASTLE, Ind., Sept. 8.—With Charles (Blinky) Beasley, 38, alleged Chicago gunman and alleged member of the notorious St. Louis Egan Rats, behind bars and chains in the Henry County jail here, charged with murder in the first degree, Sheriff Elmer Cannon today turned his attention to the search for Homer Patterson, of Terre Haute, wanted as an accomplice in the slaying of Mrs. Myrtle Miller, 36, of Muncie, whose body was found in a ditch north of here a week ago this morning.

The search for Patterson shifted to Detroit, Michigan today following the receipt of a telegram by detectives of the Muncie, Ind., police department, asking for information regarding Beasley, whether or not he was under arrest and in jail and on what charges. The officers did not reveal the name of the person who sent the telegram. It was believed to have come from a relative of Beasley.

Meanwhile Mrs. Irene Moyer, 23-year old Terre Haute flapper who introduced Beasley to Mrs. Miller a few hours before the murder, tried today to keep up her spirits in "solitary" in the women's department of the jail here. It was from her lips that Sheriff Cannon and Prosecutor Paul Benson wrung the confession in which she accused Beasley with killing Mrs. Miller with the butt end of a revolver after first hugging and petting his victim.

Sheriff Cannon received reports from Terre Haute today that a second visit of detectives to the Moyer home there had resulted in the finding of a diamond ring which had belonged to Mrs. Miller. In her confession Mrs. Moyer stated that Beasley and Patterson killed Mrs. Miller for the $400 worth of diamond jewelry she had.

Beasley has maintained a "hard boiled" attitude since his arrival here Sheriff Cannon said.

Questioned about Mrs. Moyer's confession Beasley snarled: "She lies!"

To further questions he growled: "Save your wind, I won't answer questions until I see my lawyer."

Thus far Beasley, however, has made no request to interview an attorney and it was believed he was either planning to await an opportunity to escape or was expecting "the gang" to provide his counsel.

Sheriff Cannon said he regarded Beasley as such a desperate character that he probably will ask the grand jurors to break all precedents Monday and come to the jail to interview Beasley thus eliminating any chance for a break for freedom by the prisoner.

Sullen, stubborn and non-committal, handcuffed to officers Beasley was brought here from Muncie in Sheriff Cannon's automobile.

"Corn looks pretty good here," was Beasley's comment five miles south of Muncie.

When the sheriff approached the death lane where Mrs. Miller's body was found, he slowed down his automobile. Deputy Sheriff McGraw who sat on Beasley's right, scrutinized one prisoner's face closely.

"I am positive Beasley recognized the murder lane," McGraw said. "He stared down the road as long as he could see it. His face for the first time assumed a worried appearance."

Elaborate precautions have been taken by Sheriff Cannon to prevent Beasley's escape. A huge chain which according to the sheriff "fifteen elephants couldn't break" has been placed around Beasley's cell to strengthen the regular locking devices. The sheriff has issued order that every visitor to the jail was to be searched closely "to the skin."

BLOODY GANG WAR LOOMS IN CHICAGO

SPECTACULAR ASSASSINATION OF TONY LOMBARDO OCCURS IN CROWDED "LOOP" DISTRICT

BODYGUARD IS WOUNDED

Police Believe Deadly Volley Of Bullets Presages Opening Of War Between Liquor Factions

CHICAGO, Sept. 8.—(INS)—A blood feud between the family of Tony Lombardo and the family of Frank Uale, Brooklyn gangleader, mysteriously slain two months ago, coupled with a gigantic plot to form a national alcohol syndicate, are grouped together as the motives for the murder of Lombardo, in the heart of the thronging downtown section. These theories developed slowly today with inevitable clearness through the fog of gangland silence.

By GENE HOFFMAN, I. N. S. Staff Correspondent

CHICAGO, Sept. 8.—(INS)—While all Chicago stood appalled today over the daring assassination of Tony Lombardo, one of the most powerful figures in gangland, his faithful body guard, Tony Ferraro, felled in the same deadly volley of bullets, was fighting for life at the Cook County Hospital.

Although probably fatally wounded Ferraro, in keeping with the tradition al code of gangland, steadfastly refused to give police any information as to the identity of the slayers. That Ferraro knows them, police have no doubt.

In Chicago's long history of gangster killings, the murderous attack on Lombardo and his aides late yesterday was the most spectacular and dramatic to date.

It occurred in the heart of the downtown or "Loop" district, on the south side of Madison street between Clark and Dearborn. The evening rush hour was just getting under way and the street was filled with people.

Thousands heard the death dealing pistol shots. That none of the bystanders was hit is a tribute to the deadly marksmanship of the gangster assassins. As the shots rang out panic reigned in the crowded street. Automobiles crashed together as their occupants and hundreds of persons on the sidewalk dived for cover.

Presently the crowds emerged and then it was a milling, seething mass of humanity that police had to fight to maintain order. Lombardo lay in a pool of his own blood on the sidewalk where he fell. He was dead. Beside him, horribly wounded but still conscious, lay Ferraro, the bodyguard, a useless, gun gripped tightly in his right hand.

Details of the shooting, as gathered from various eye witnesses, differ widely. Some said five men leaped from an automobile and began "pump lead" into Lombardo and his guards. Others said two men stood in wait in a doorway. Still another version was that a gang of eight or ten men suddenly formed a ring around Lombardo and opened fire.

A second Lombardo bodyguard, Joseph Lolordo, was caught by police as he chased a "man in gray" through a shoe store at the scene of the killing. Lolordo claimed not to know the man he was after but admitted he was one of the "boss' killers."

Lombardo was known as "King of Mafia." He was second only to "Scarface Al" Capone in the councils of gangland. For years he has been an aid of the notorious Capone.

Police investigators, familiar with the workings of gangland, say the killing of "King Tony" is the first act in a war between the Capone-Lombardo faction and the Aiello brothers for control of the North Side liquor and vice privileges.

It was frankly predicted that the killing of Lombardo probably would touch off the bloodiest gang war in the history of Chicago, with the combined resources of the two powerful gangs in the city thrown into the combat.

"MORAL ISSUE" COLLAPSES UNDER SMITH'S REPLY TO WILLIAM ALLEN WHITE

Opponents Forced to Acknowledge Falsity of Vice and Liquor Charges.

"VILE SUGGESTIONS" REFUTED BY RECORD

Democratic Nominee Declares Attack Was "Probably Inspired" by Republican National Committee.

ALBANY, N. Y.—The furtively whispered and fanatically decried "moral issue," injected openly into the Presidential campaign by William Allen White, Emporia (Kans.) editor, is today as dead as the dodo.

With one masterly stroke, the forceful, fearless statement of a man unjustly assailed, Governor Alfred E. Smith has revealed clearly the unfairness and irresponsibility of those antagonists who were so unwise as to attack his personal record.

Replying to the charges made by the Kansas editor, the Governor defended and justified, bill by bill, his long record as a member of the New York State Assembly.

Vile Suggestions
Asserting that the "vile suggestions" of his accuser were "probably inspired" by the Republican National Committee, the Governor said:

"I am glad to have this matter taken out of the whispering stage and put into the open. Once and for all I shall meet it now. And meet it he did."

The "slandorous statement" that he had aided prostitution, he showed, was based upon his vote in opposition to a single bill; and he disclosed that he had opposed that bill merely because it was "unquestionably unconstitutional and unworkable."

"On this bill, and on this single bill alone," Governor Smith said, "William Allen White would have my wife, my children and my friends believe that in my long career I was a friend of public prostitution."

Proving that the Kansan was entirely ignorant of the background of various bills he cited to support his charges, Governor Smith pointed out that both Republicans and Democrats had voted overwhelmingly with him. On one of the bills for which he was criticized, he revealed, the Assembly had voted unanimously.

Bills Duplicated
The Executive disclosed also his accuser's apparent guile in duplicating bills, in a "deliberate attempt" to show that his votes "dealt with a far greater number of so-called liquor bills than in fact they did."

One group of bills cited by White, referring to the establishment of premises licensed to sell liquor within 200 feet of a church or school, had been passed, it was shown, for the purpose of remedying a mistake in the language of the law, in accordance with a recommendation of the Court of Appeals.

Reviewing the history of the accusations, which he characterized as cowardly, Governor Smith pointed out that White had issued a retraction of the charged dealing with gambling and prostitution. He continued:

"The appearance of the Republican National Committee in the controversy indicates that it was a political attack probably inspired by that committee, because the Republican National Committee this week issued an official release to the newspapers in which Mr. White retracts his retraction."

Not Fair Play
"Lacking the courage to stand by its own complicity in the attack, the Republican director of publicity the next day states that he withdraws his issuance of Mr. White's withdrawal of his withdrawal." The Governor added:

"No one in all the 25 years of my public life has ever dared to make the vile suggestions which emanated from Mr. White, with the approval of Henry J. Allen, Publicity Director of the Republican National Committee. What a cowardly course the Republican National Committee pursued! It issued a slanderous statement through its official publicity bureau and then, after its general publication in the press, attempted to evade responsibility by the childish claim that it had been given out by accident. That is not fair play."

"HATES HYPOCRISY"

Famous Philanthropist, Life-long republican, Will Vote for Smith.

August Heckscher, noted philanthropist and a life-long Republican, has announced that he will support Governor Smith rather than Hoover, because he "hates hypocrisy."

Mr. Heckscher was 80 years old last day. He has voted the Republican ticket in every election for 60 years, said, except when he cast his ballot for Cleveland.

S. MARSHALL HEADS WOMEN'S SMITH CLUB

OS ANGELES.—Mrs. Thomas R. Marshall, widow of Vice President Marshall, has been named as chairman of the Women's Smith Club of the United States. Miss Mary Poy, known Democratic woman leader in this section, is vice chairman.

SENATOR ROBINSON WILL TOUR SOUTH

NEW YORK.—Senator Joe T. Robinson of Arkansas, the Democratic nominee for Vice President, will make a tour of the south, delivering fourteen speeches from September 4 to September 21, inclusive, it was announced at Democratic National Headquarters.

The itinerary follows:
Sept. 4, El Paso, Texas; Sept. 6, Nashville, Tenn.; Sept. 7, Chattanooga, Tenn.; Sept. 8, Knoxville, Tenn.; Sept. 10, Richmond, Va.; Sept. 11, Raleigh, N. C.; Sept. 12, Charlotte, N. C.; Sept. 13, Columbia, S. C.; Sept. 14, Jacksonville, Fla.; Sept. 17, Miami, Fla.; Sept. 18, Atlanta, Ga.; Sept. 19, Bowling Green, Ky.; Sept. 20, Louisville, Ky.; Sept. 21, Henderson, Ky.

SMITH LAUDED BY SOUTHERN SENATOR

George of Georgia Says South Respects Candidate's "Complete Integrity."

ALBANY, N. Y.—Declaring that Democrats everywhere are bound to recognize the "honesty and complete mental integrity" of the man who heads their party, Senator Walter F. George, of Georgia, after his first visit to Governor Smith, predicted that the South would join the East in casting its electoral votes for Governor Smith. Senator George said:

"I think the integrity of Governor Smith's mental processes and his straightforwardness and candor and frank statement of the issues he wishes to make to the country, will equally appeal to the voters of the East and the South."

"I think that when the people have thought the matter over they are likely to respond, and will respond, to the open-mindedness and honesty of Governor Smith. On any public question the Governor will state his own position. He doesn't want to deceive himself or anybody else. My recent discussion with him has convinced me that he has a marvellous grasp of the country's problems. I regard him as one of the outstanding Democrats of all time."

NATION ACCLAIMS SMITH ACCEPTANCE SPEECH

Prominent Republicans throughout the country joined Democrats in paying high tribute to the principles enunciated by Governor Smith in his speech of acceptance. Here is some of the comment:

COL. EDWARD C. CARRINGTON, campaign manager in Maryland for President Roosevelt and former Republican candidate for Senator: I concur with Gov. Smith in his insistence in giving the 40,000,000 people of the Middle West an outlet from the Great Lakes to the sea through American territory and controlled by the United States in peace and in war. I will vote for Smith.

WILLIAM H. SETTLE, President of the Indiana Farm Bureau's Federation: Gov. Smith's farm plan is in perfect agreement with the 34 farm organizations of the Central West.

GEORGE N. PEEK, Republican farm leader, of Moline, Ill.: Gov. Smith's magnificent speech should awaken and thrill the farmers of this country.

SEN. DUNCAN U. FLETCHER, of Florida: Gov. Smith has shown that he measures up to the standard of a great statesman.

HENRY C. HANSBROUGH, former Republican Senator from North Dakota: Gov. Smith sounds the tocsin of war in behalf of thirty odd millions of farmers. At last the farmer is in a position to take the first step towards relief by voting for a man whose record for constructive achievement is beyond reproach.

RICHARD R. QUAY, prominent Republican business man of Pittsburgh, and son of the former Republican leader in Pennsylvania: A human declaration with honesty, high courage and red blood in every line—the most refreshing ever issued by a candidate for high office.

Here is some of the press comment. TULSA, Okla., WORLD (Republican): It was the most candid and frank speech ever made by any candidate for the Presidency of the United States, and is a gladome relief from the flubdubbery, evasion and claptrap indulged in by most men in high places.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, STATE JOURNAL (Republican): Thoughtful, open minded, patriotic people, who know what is going on under the present prohibition policy, will give it much careful attention.

ALBANY, New York, KNICKERBOCKER PRESS (Republican): It (Gov. Smith's program) furnishes a starting point from which a way may be found out of the deep and disgusting morass of official debauchery, law defiance, intemperance and, what is most appalling, peril to public and social morality.

THE THEATERS

THE GRANADA

Burke Typifies Modern Youth
Warren Burke, Fox Films newest juvenile acquisition, who plays one of the featured roles in "Road House," with Maria Alba and Lionel Barrymore, was chosen for the part because he typifies modern youth.

In the role of Larry Grayson, the prodigal son, Young Burke saw all of his dreams materializing in a dramatic career. Another newcomer to the screen who plays her first featured role is vivacious Maria Alba, winner of Fox Films motion picture contest in Spain.

"Road House" is a dramatic picture of flaming youth and a prodigal son who is driven into the wayward path by parental misunderstanding. Philip Hurn wrote the story and Richard Rosson directed. It will show at the Granada Theatre for two days commencing Monday.

THE VONCASTLE

Cossack Riders Fear Bad Luck

National superstitions often figure prominently in the making of a motion picture; for instance, when Geo. Hill directed "Tell It to the Marines," a special joss had to be built before the Chinese actors would face the camera. But his real experience with superstition came with the arrival of the troop of Cossack riders brought from Europe to stage riding thrills in "The Cossacks." John Gilbert's spectacular new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer vehicle coming to the Voncastles Theatre Monday.

The Cossacks, all ex-soldiers, and interpid riders, staged many sensational feats of horsemanship, Gilbert riding with them as a Cossack soldier. But they had many superstitions. They refused to ride any spotted horse—for it is believed that the wife of a man who rides a spotted horse is untrue to him. None would ride mares—that is considered a disgrace. Monday is held sacred, so schedules had to be arranged accordingly.

The new picture is a spectacular romance of Russia with Gino in the role of a Cossack soldier and Renee Adoree as the heroine.

The cast includes Ernest Torrence as the old Cossack chieftain, Mary Alden, Neil Neely, Josephine Borio, Dale Fuller, Paul Hurst, Yorke Sherwood, Joseph Mari and others of note.

Spectacular battles between Cossacks and Turks, huge riding thrills in which Cossacks staged the national riding sports of their land and other elaborate detail mark the big production, one of the most elaborate features of the present season.

BAPTISTS FACE STAGGERING LOSS OF A MILLION

C. S. CARNES, MISSING ATLANTA TREASURER OF BAPTIST HOME MISSIONARY BOARD, HAS STOLEN VIRTUALLY ALL ASSETS OF BOARD, SAYS SECRETARY

RALEIGH, N. C., Sept. 7.—(INS)—C. S. Carnes, missing Atlanta treasurer of the Baptist Home Mission Board, "has stolen virtually all the assets, invested funds and trust funds" of the board, declared Dr. C. E. Madry, general secretary of the Baptist State convention and member of the Board, in a statement issued here today.

Dr. Madry said the shortage of Carnes, who disappeared from Atlanta several weeks ago after telling friends he was coming to Raleigh, was known to be $958,000. He said he expected the amount to exceed a million dollars when the auditors had finished their check of Carnes' books.

"I do not suppose any religious body in all history of Christianity has suffered such a staggering calamity," said Dr. Madry. "But having said this, I wish to assure our people there is the bright side to the whole thing. The Baptists of the South number more than three million members gathered into 26,000 churches. Through our long history this is the first loss that has ever come to the Home Board. The Baptists of the South have never defaulted in one single cent and while we are staggering beyond words to express at this calamity we are not going to default now. We want every bank and creditor in the South to know that Southern Baptists are going to meet this disaster with fortitude and courage and every dollar of this fearful loss will be paid."

fore Oct. 15 to prepare a satisfactory train schedule that would care for public convenience without subjecting the Monon to an unreasonable cost.

Cutting down Freight losses

One of the important features of good railroad service is the safe arrival of freight shipments.

The Big Four is proud of the constant decrease in claims for damage or loss of goods entrusted to its care.

During the first half of 1928 this item amounted to but three-fourths of one percent of the total freight revenues, the lowest in a number of years.

This reduction is the result of intensive study by those who have the work in charge, the loyal interest of the railroad's employees, and a fine spirit of cooperation on the part of shippers.

BUTLER ATTACK IS COSTLY TO G. O. P.

Educator's Repudiation of Hoover Swings Many Votes to Smith.

The unqualified repudiation of Herbert Hoover by Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, President of Columbia University, and President of the Carnegie Endowment Foundation for International Peace, has proved, political observers say, one of the most staggering blows suffered in the present campaign by the Republican forces.

Although many prominent Republicans have renounced allegiance to their party since Hoover's nomination, none, it is conceded, has influenced so many votes.

A highly esteemed leader in Republican party affairs since 1887, Dr. Butler has attended every Republican national convention for 40 years. In 1912, following the death of Vice President Sherman, who had been renominated, Dr. Butler became the Republican candidate for Vice President. He was one of his party's most prominent candidates for the nomination for President in 1924.

The reaction to his ringing disavowal of the principles enunciated by Hoover in his acceptance speech was immediate and nationwide. His bold and unequivocal declaration that he could not support a candidate who admitted himself to be in favor of the "continuance of the present reign of lawlessness, debauchery and Government-made crime" brought thousands of letters of congratulation from other dissatisfied Republicans.

In a scathing letter, addressed to the editor of the New York Times, Dr. Butler declared he wished to disassociate himself "quickly, publicly and completely on positions on two of the three most important questions now before the American people that were taken by Mr. Hoover in his speech of acceptance."

Noted Authority

Dr. Butler, who has long been in demand by learned bodies as a speaker on questions relating to international relations and the promotion of world peace, ridiculed Hoover for his "wholly false argument" that the squandering of enormous sums on naval armament would cooperate in the maintenance of peace.

"The contrary is now the well-demonstrated fact," asserted the educator. "Mr. Hoover dismisses with a few perfunctory words the truly remarkable treaty just now to be signed by ourselves and all the great powers of the earth pledging renunciation of war as an instrument of national policy." He added that Hoover's position was mere "swagger."

He criticized Hoover for "accepting the formula of that paid band of agitators, lobbyists and persecutors which calls itself the Anti-Saloon League," and asserted that it is "quite obvious that Mr. Hoover has no conception of the real problem by which the country is faced."

"That problem," averred Dr. Butler, "has not to do with liquor, not with social experiments, good, bad or indifferent, but with the structure and functions of the Government of the United States."

Accusing the Republican candidate of "hypocrisy" and "contradiction" which "would be comic were it not so unacceptably tragic," the educator declared: "No one can be in favor of the principles upon which our Government rests, or of the Constitution itself, and at the same time in favor of the Eighteenth Amendment, because the two are absolutely contradictory." "Literally millions of Republicans throughout the country," Dr. Butler asserted, are "in full agreement" with him.

HOOVER FARM STATEMENT CALLED "CLEVER DELUSION"

"A very pretty Christmas tree for the American farmer, covered with glistening tinsel and little Christmas bells, but without presents—in other words, a clever delusion."

That is how Herbert Hoover's statement on Agriculture is described by William Hirth, of Columbia, Mo., publisher of the Missouri Farmer, and chairman of the Corn Belt Committee. Mr. Hirth adds:

"Mr. Hoover's message to Agriculture constitutes a lot of cleverly put together bunk that will not fool the thinking farmers of this country. When he admits that after eight years of uninterrupted power the Republican party has failed to meet what he now says is the 'most urgent economic problem in our Nation' he is caught in his own bear trap—how can he confess this indictment against his party in one breath, and then have the nerve to ask the farmers for his vote in the next?"

LONDON THIEVES SAMPLE WINE IN SOCIETY HOMES

By J. C. OESTREICHER
I. N. S. Staff Correspondent

LONDON, Sept. 8.—The London police will soon be instructed to identify burglary suspects by the smell of champagne upon their breaths, if a new epidemic among the thieving classes spreads.

In the last few weeks, there have been repeated cases of robbers breaking into fashionable homes, and not content with stealing all readily movable values, they have invaded the wine-cellars, spreading desolation among the carefully stacked bottles of rare vintage wines.

Drink and Dine

The thieving is all done first, and the valuables piled in a handy place, the police say, whereafter the robbers set themselves about making a gay time of the evening. Larders and pantries are ransacked for delicacies, which are eaten to the accompaniment of champagne, in many instances the prize possession of the house-owner.

Naturally, these "champagne suppers" take place only when the houses which are raided are completely unoccupied. There have been cases reported where robberies have been discovered by the empty bottles strewn around the house.

Drank 50 Bottles

One robber band recently consumed fifty bottles of the champagne at one sitting. The gang could not have consisted of more than five or six men, and how they got through the streets safely or even managed to reach the street without collapsing completely, remains an unsolved mystery.

As a rule the burglars are polite enough not to avail themselves of the master's bedroom during or after these champagne orgies, but there have been uncovered unmistakable signs of thieves having slept all night in drawing rooms or wine-cellars, obviously to recover from the effects of their bibulation.

Moderate Smoking Safe for the Well

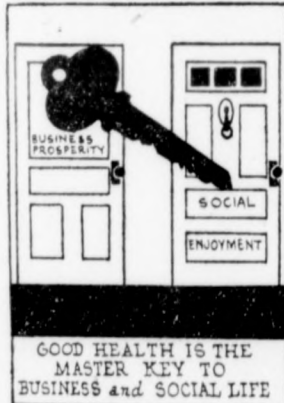

MUCH has been said for and against the smoking habit.

Some physicians advise against it. Perhaps the safest rule is moderate smoking only for those in sound health. Those who are not strong, especially women, should not smoke at all.

Excessive smoking is harmful to anyone in that it causes disturbances of the heart and where the smoke is inhaled laryngitis results. It may even cause the digestion to be disturbed.

Cigarette smokers, perhaps, are more apt to suffer ill effects from tobacco than those smoking cigars or a pipe. The former abuse the habit to a greater extent than the latter. Also they are much more liable to inhale the smoke.

I should say that excessive smoking is harmful to anyone, but tobacco in moderation is safe enough for a healthy person.

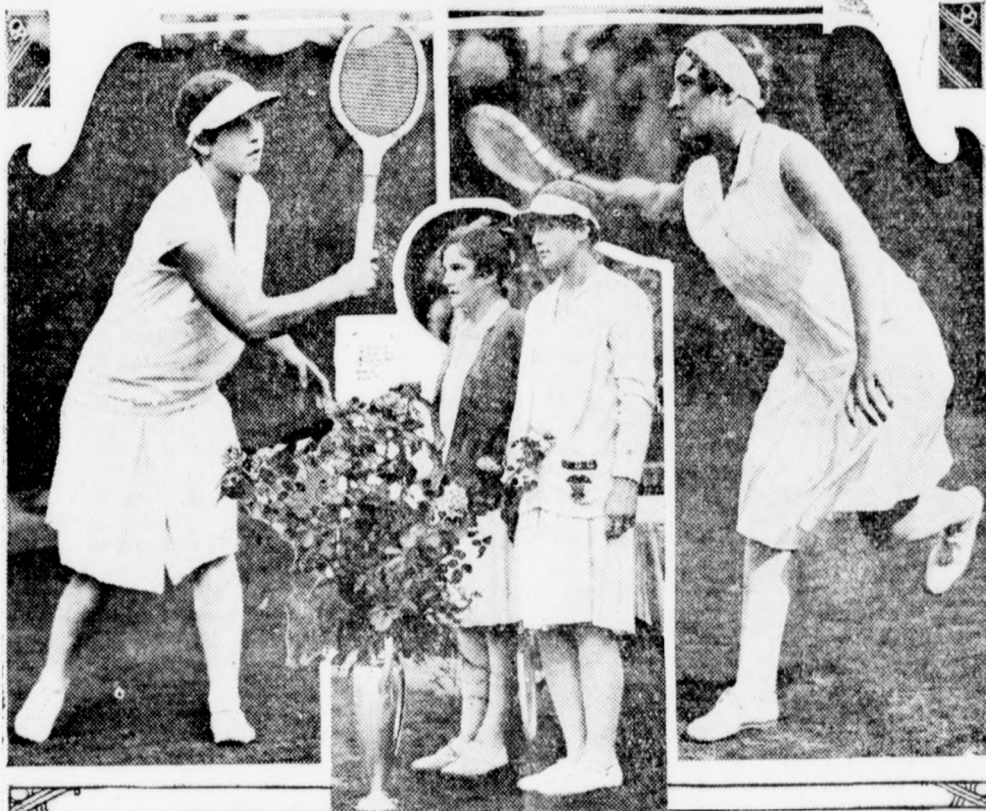

For the person who has never smoked I should advise him not to start as it is a habit easily acquired and one that is very difficult to practice in moderation.

RACKETEERING BEING PROBED BY GRAND JURY

"DRY UP PHILADELPHIA" ARE ORDERS ISSUED TO POLICE TODAY—HEAD OF CITY DETECTIVES IS DISMISSED

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 8.—(INS)—"Dry up Philadelphia" was the general police order issued today.

The police were instructed to clamp the lid on tight and halt all suspicious looking trucks and autos and to clean up saloons, clubs and speakeasies in their districts.

This was the latest development in the sensational probe into racketeering and underworld conditions here started by Judge Edwin O. Lewis and district attorney John Monaghan. The recommendation of the special grand jury engaged in the probe resulted in the suspension of Captain Charles Beckman, head of the city detectives, yesterday when the jury declared him unfit for office.

Possible further linking of the alleged rum ring here with Chicago and other cities was seen today in the visit of Robert Bruner of Chicago here as a representative of the city and his offer to help in tracing any operations of the racketeers here to Chicago.
